WHAT IS THE ERASMUS MUNDUS CLE MASTER’S PROGRAM?

STUDENTS’ MOBILITY
CLE students are required to study in two or three universities of the consortium. This will allow them to:
- Achieve an international education;
- Develop a research project;
- Obtain two or three diplomas.

DEGREES
The CLE Master is a two-year full-time academic program. At the end of the two-year program, after defending their Master’s thesis before an international committee, CLE students receive two or three diplomas issued by all the universities of the consortium where they spent at least one semester.

REQUIREMENTS
In order to apply to the CLE Master’s program students must have an excellent curriculum; possess a BA-equivalent diploma (180 credits) allowing access to education Bac + 5 (i.e. Laurea triennale, Licence or a Bachelor of Arts...); possess a university diploma having attended a class on the following subjects: Literature, Language (Expressions Techniques, Linguistic and Language Sciences, Philology), History, Art History; know at least English (minimum level B1) and the language (minimum level B2) of the University of the consortium where they intend to spend their first year in the program.

SCHOLARSHIP AND FINANCIAL SUPPORT
CLE students have the possibility to apply for different financial supports (please, visit website CLE).

APPLICATION ROUNDS
October-January / February and March-May/ June

CLE ACTIVITIES

CLE students must attend the courses provided under the program. Moreover, additional activities are offered:

- Meetings with Institutions, enterprises and public/private companies: until today several meetings with job market representatives and professionals have been organized. For more information about the project Humanities and Enterprises Annual Dialogue - H.E.A.D. see the dedicated page on the CLE website;
- Editing: students are involved in editing activities under a professor supervision;
- Alumni CLE: an Alumni CLE Day is organized periodically during the graduation week in a EU partner university;
- Seminars, workshops, conferences, language courses and cultural activities.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

- Doctoral research in any PhD programme with a focus on European literatures or cultures. The CLE graduates will be encouraged to pursue their education within the Doctorat d’Études Supérieures Européennes (D.E.S.E), «Les Littératures de l’Europe unie»;
- A career in the European cultural institutions or in any local institution or association involving a cultural program. Therefore, the CLE Master’s program encourages student contact and collaboration with several local institutions such as Linguistic and Cultural Centers, Foundations, Museums and Publishers;
- A career in the private sector, requiring book-related skills (translations, philological editions) or multicultural skills (cultural and linguistic mediation, social responsibility agenda), journalism, literary criticism, radio or tv broadcasting, copyediting, public relations.
